THESIS AND FACULTY ADVISING

Check all that apply. It is possible to be accepted to write one type of thesis but not the other. If you are accepted to write more than one, you may choose between them or write more than one thesis.

Are you applying to write a critical and/or creative thesis?

Critical

Creative

If a creative thesis, in what genre(s) are you interested?

Fiction

Non-Fiction

Poetry

(Optional) Which faculty members do you think would be good advisors for your thesis? List in order of preference.

PERSONAL STATEMENT AND WRITING SAMPLE

Submit the following materials in addition to this form.

1. Personal Statement

A brief one- to two-page statement of your interest in the English Honors program.

2. Writing Sample(s)

If applying for a critical thesis, include a critical essay or an excerpt (max. 25 pp.)

If applying for a creative thesis, include one or more of the following:

for fiction: one short story or an extract (max. 25 pp.)

for poetry: up to three poems or an extract (max. 7 pp.)

for non-fiction: one non-fiction essay or an extract (max. 25 pp.)

Send all materials (including this form) as Word or PDF attachments to this email link.

Include your name in the title of each attachment, beginning with your last name.

Example: For Jane Smiley's application, appropriate titles would be:

Smiley_Jane_ScholarshipApp17

Smiley_Jane_PersonalStatement17

Smiley_Jane_WritingSample1

Smiley_Jane_WritingSample2

LETTER(S) OF RECOMMENDATION

Applications only require one letter of recommendation from English faculty. Transfer students may use letters from faculty at former institutions.
