Name ___________________________________________ Date ____________

1. Have you attached an approved reading list to this form? ___

2. Have you met the foreign language requirement? ____________

Please list the areas in which you plan to be examined on the written PhD comprehensive examination, plus the dates and times:

AREA I: Genre: _______________________________________________
                    DATE & TIME: _________________________________________

AREA II: Period: _____________________________________________
                    DATE & TIME: _________________________________________

AREA III: Author (1): _________________________________________
              Author (2): ___________________________________________
                    DATE & TIME: _________________________________________

AREA IV: Minor (optional): _____________________________________

TENTATIVE ORAL DAY & TIME: _________________________________

Please list the names of those faculty members who have agreed to serve on your examination committee (at least four). Please type the names and have the professor initial beside their name.

(Chair)_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

Approved: Program Director __________________________ Date _____

NB: You must submit this form to the Program Secretary at least six months before the date of your first written exam. Once this form is filed, comprehensive exam committee members or reading lists can be changed only upon petition to the Director.

1/23/2019